Test Your Knowledge

The Exploration section serves as an introduction to the concepts you will be using during your experiment. It begins by assessing your prior knowledge through interactive "Test Your Knowledge" questions. There are several types of questions in this section, including Match List, Order, and Classification questions.

To answer Match List questions:

- Select on the boxes and drag them to the empty, dashed location boxes.
- Select "Check Answer."
- Select "Next" to proceed.

Match each term with the correct definition.

The part of the lesson that reviews of content needed for the lesson.

The part of the lesson that provides a hands-on application of content knowledge.

The part of the lesson that assesses how well you have achieved the learning objectives set for the lesson.
